

Scott completes Tough Mudder

Not satisfied with working at remote river locations, clambering up and down banks with the general trials and tribulations of land surveying, Scott has recently completed a Tough Mudder event, 12 mile run with a bunch of obstacles including iced water swim and electric shocks! Nice!

RYA First Aid training

This week we have all completed a one day RYA first aid course bringing us up to date with the latest in first aid and improving our confidence should the unexpected occur on site. Many thanks to Nick at <http://www.wideawake-training.co.uk> for the excellent and comprehensive course.
